

Odds and Ends of Gossip.

VARIABILITY.
Now is the time when nature seems so mercurially variable.
The color on the rose-bush gleams, And kindly smiles the moon.
And yet the cold wave—think of that, Though perishes be afoot.
So give me straight my cool straw hat, Likewise my overcoat.
We'll forsake the beams of gloom, And to the woodland rove, We'll gather there some fragrant bloom—Or wood to feed the stove.
All calculations now fall flat, While grippies microbes gloat.
So give me straight my cool straw hat, Likewise my overcoat.

IMPORTANCE.—The little insignificant creature that is a tracing so much attention just now on account of the mischief it is playing with the elms in this vicinity has a very high sounding name and it is an imported resident of this country. The scientific name of the little creature is "Yuccella glauca" and it has been known in eastern states as long as sixty years where it has persistently attacked the English elms annually.

Feared a Mob.
George Boyd, the aged Spencer county negro charged with criminally assaulting Nettie Smith, a fifteen-year-old white girl, was removed from the Bardonia jail Monday evening and taken to Louisville for safe keeping. Judge Daugherty had notified the Spencer county authorities to remove the negro, as he feared a mob would attempt to take him from the Bardonia jail.

Mr. Gilead (O.) Union Register says: "If you have anything good to say about your fellow man say it while he is alive. A man's hearing is better while he is living, besides you can do him no good by retreating all his good deeds after he is dead. It will not make his character for him but for you. God already knows of all the good he ever did."

DOES IT PAY TO BUY CHEAP?
A cheap remedy for coughs and colds will do you no good. You want something to relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the ONLY remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boche's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ which causes inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommended by many years by all druggists in the world. For sale by Hayden & Robertson.

Small-Fox.
The small-fox has entirely subdued. There is no vestige of the disease left in the Holy Cross country, except indeed that some faces have been marked in a manner to mar their beauty somewhat. The quarantine has been raised from the infected houses; not, however, until a thorough and systematic disinfection of the premises including every article that could be by any possibility convey infection. Every precaution has been taken to prevent a recurrence of the disease.

Next week announces a Missouri editor, who has the Sheldon speech still fresh in his mind, appears to us that, considering the length of time intervening between the first appearance of the disease and its identification as small-pox, the scope of territory affected, and the numerous exposures—there must have been most able and judicious treatment to have stamped out the epidemic so quickly.

There were in all eighteen cases of the disease, most of them in a mild form, though some of the milder type, it appears to us that, considering the length of time intervening between the first appearance of the disease and its identification as small-pox, the scope of territory affected, and the numerous exposures—there must have been most able and judicious treatment to have stamped out the epidemic so quickly.

Two important damage suits were filed in the Washington Circuit Court this week. One was filed by Mr. Charles Champion through his attorney Hon.
John W. Lewis in which he seeks to recover $20,000 damages from the Louisville & Nashville railroad company for humiliation, loss of feelings, etc. It appears that one day last week Champion called for a ticket to Louisville from the agent and was given one, paying as he claims the regular price for it. When he presented the ticket to the conductor on the regular passenger train the latter refused to accept it, claiming that the ticket was clipped from the regular passenger train and that it was not a ticket issued to Champion. He refused to pay for it and got off the train at Bookers and came back to Springfield in a buggy and the damage suit was filed as a result.

Another suit was that of Miss Pearl Adams a well-known young lady of the county against the First National Bank of Springfield for $3,000. Miss Adams claims to have been put to a great deal of trouble and humiliation through an error on the part of the bank officials.

She claims that while attending school at Lexington recently she gave several checks on the First National Bank which checks were returned marked "no funds" while at the same time she had money on deposit in the bank. The error was afterward rectified but until the trouble and damage had been done to the plaintiff's honor. Messrs W. C. McChord and W. B. Rinehart are attorneys for Miss Adams.

Mrs. W. C. Grigsby Dead.

Mrs. Mary J. Grigsby wife of Dr. W. C. Grigsby, the popular jeweler and optician of this place, died at her home here last Saturday morning after a long illness of heart trouble. The announcement of the sudden taking away of this most estimable young woman was sad news to her friends in Springfield and the sympathy of the entire community is extended to the berieved husband. The deceased was about 28 years of age and her maiden name was Mary Kirkpatrick being the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick of Macomb, Ill. She was married to Dr. Grigsby about nine years ago and in 1897 they moved to Springfield to make their home. She was a natural, modest disposition that made acquaintances slowly but it can be truly said that the number of her friends was limited only by the number of her acquaintances and all who came in contact with her can bear testimony as to her goodness and beauty of character.

The remains accompanied by the bereaved husband were taken to the old home at Macomb Ill., where the funeral took place.

A Brilliant Function.

One of the most brilliant of the summer season was the ball given by the young men of Springfield at the new Barber Opera House on Tuesday evening.
The new hall with its large floor space for the dancers and spectators and its fine ventilation made an ideal place for an affair of that kind, and when filled with the score or more of beautiful young lady dancers in gorgeous costumes presented a scene that was quite dazzling in its effect. The Bard-stown string band furnished excellent music for the occasion and everything was well managed and the evening passed off most delightfully and greatly to the credit of the young men of the town who had the affair in charge. A large number of married ladies of the town were present to act as chaperones.

Among the visitors were the following: Miss Shirley Williams, Bath and Lucy Spalding and Messrs. Kpt. Barber, Earl King, Steve Fulton, Earl Roly, J. T. Nicholas, John Carpenter, Lee and Jim Stoner, Robert Crimes, Sidney, Ed and William Smith of Bardstown, Misses Ada Smith, Margaret Ray, Beasra Arthur Smith, Leona Beckley, and John Woods-Lebanon, Miss Woodie Moore, Sherman Texas, Miss Lawrence, Illinois, Miss Bridges, Missouri, Miss Vossy, Ohio, Miss Miller, Stanford, Miss Anna English, Elizabethtown.

Springfield during the week beginning Monday, July 1st, and ending Friday, July 5th. The work of the institute during sides the work of the syllabus, a new feature, and one half promises to be of much practical aid to the teacher—class work.

The members of the institute will be divided into four sections, of fifteen teachers each, and each section will work successively in His-

H. R. THOMPSON
Collector.

Mr. Will D. McChord met with quite a serious accident one day last week while "helping out" in the planing mill. In some way his right hand got caught in one of the saws and the ends of three fingers on his right hand were badly lacerated. The wounds were dressed and he is getting on as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

Rev. John Crow will give a lecture at the Court House here on Tuesday evening July 24th on the subject "My Wife and That Husband of Hers." The proceeds will be for the benefit of the Methodist Church. Rev.
Crow is an attractive speaker and the lecture will doubtless draw a full house.

John Thomas a black and white man was killed before Judge Litsey on Tuesday and held over on a bond of $500 to answer the charge of malicious cutting. Thomas' victim is Ben Goatley another negro well-known about the county and the facts occurred at the home of Neal Moran in the Valley Hill neighborhood one night last week when a dance was in progress. It seems that Goatley and a negro by the name of Garland Graves had a row over some trivial matter. Graves had several partners who joined in the rumpus and in the general mix-up Goatley was stabbed in the breast with a knife. Several witnesses testified that Thomas did the cutting although Goatley says that he did not know who handed the knife.

The Nelson Record has the following about Capt. Donovan, who has been spending his far-giving in Springfield: Capt. Jos.
L. Donovan, U. S. A., stationed at Louisville as recruiting officer, was here Sunday shaking hands with his old friend Capt.
Donovan is an old Bardstown boy, of whom the people here feel proud. During the Cuban war he was a Lieutenant Colonel of volunteers, leading the famous Fifty-Ninth New York regiment at the battle of San-tuago. It will be remembered how bravely that gallant, brave, and fought there. After being mustered out he rejoined his former regiment, which was ordered to the Philippines. While there he was severely wounded, and was compelled to return to America. Since his recovery he has had charge of the Louisville recruiting station.

tory, Grammar, Reading and of the work will be under the supervision of competent instructors and teachers of experience.

The committee on Institute Work has secured the services of Miss Carrie Cosby to take charge of the work in Reading; Prof. E. H. Crawford, Grammar; Prof. E. B. Grant, Arithmetic; and Prof. W. J. Bumley, History. These are teachers of ability and resource, and having had wide experience in school work, it only remains for the cooperation of the teachers of the county to make the coming session one of the most instructive and beneficial to those who attend.

It had been intended to conduct the institute on the normal plan, with class work in different rooms, but owing to the inability to secure a suitable building, the plan has been modified and the work will occupy one room as formerly.

A protected meeting is being conducted at Mt. Zion by Rev.
O. H. Neal, preacher in charge, and Rev. Carter, the well known young evangelist of Gratz, Ky.
Prof. Cornish has charge of the singing. Large crowds attend the services and much good is done.

Messrs. W. H. and G. T. Ras-sell have returned from Harrodsburg.

A large number of lambs were delivered last week by the farmers of this community. Prices five cents per pound.

We attended the regular ses-at Point on last Saturday. The case of Sney vs. Peach was considered by agreement of the parties. It is to be tried at Tan-sboro on Wednesday, July 25.

Kelling vs. Hatchett judgment was given for the plaintiff.

Miss Willie Voulter, of Bard-town, and Miss Anna Pulliam, of Chaplin, are spending the week with Miss Louise Cockendolph.

Mr. A. L. Baxter and Miss Ora Cockendolph spent a few days with their aunt, Mrs. Wm. Grigsby, last week.

Miss Fess Cockendolph, of Chaplin, is visiting Mrs. Emma Neal here.

Messrs. Henry Bedford and with Dr. Smithers and wife at Fox Creek.

Lawyers Marsh and McKee, of Harrodsburg, and Thurman and Rinehart, of Springfield, and Rash, of Chaplin, attended Squire Henderson's court at Point on last Saturday.

On Monday our correspondent attended the opening of the Teachers' Institute at Lawrenceburg. That little city is about midway between Louisville and Lexington. Its well kept streets and splendid buildings give it a fine appearance. On the street we received a hearty handshake from Senator Carter. He had just returned from Frankfort where he acted as governor while
Gov. Beckham attended the St.
Louis convention. The Teachers' Institute convened at the Columbia building with M. L.
Chowning as chairman. The morning session was devoted to preliminary work and short addresses by the citizens of the town and responded to by the teachers. In the afternoon Prof.
Bell took the subject of Arithmetic and gave a very interesting address. Prof. Bell is an ex-member of the State Board. It is said that he prepared the most of the problems as sent out by the State Board during the four years.

Mr. Lem Chesser and Miss Anna Elizabeth Grigsby and Mr.

Grigsby were married on Wednesday eve, July 4th, at the res-father of the bride. Mr. Chesser is the eldest son of Mr. Harvey P. Chesser, a prominent farmer of the Polin neighborhood. Mr. Crow is the youngest son of Mr. Zack Crow, a well-to-do farmer and trader of the Polin neighborhood. The brides are sisters of W. F. Grigsby, the well known school teacher at this place.

Rev. C. H. Neal officiated. After the ceremony a bountiful supper was served. On the following days receptions were given by Zack Crow. Your correspondent wishes them much happiness, health and prosperity.

conducted at Mt. Zion by Rev.
O. H. Neal, preacher in charge,
and Rev. Carter, the well known
young evangelist of Gratz, Ky.

done.

burg.

midway between Louisville and
Gov. Beckham attended the St.
Louis convention. The Teachers' Institute convened at the
Columbia building with M. L.
teachers. In the afternoon Prof.
Bell took the subject of Arith-
